

Hello Everyone

Looking ahead to tomorrow's services we have the usual 9.30 am Holy Communion Service at Chalgrave and 11.00 am Holy Communion Service at Toddington to which you are all warmly invited. After the 11.00 am service I lead baby Archie's baptism in a separate service at 1.00 pm. Malcolm and I told the story of Jesus' baptism in the River Jordan at the Lower School Collective Worship last Thursday.... but we won't be fully immersing Archie in the font tomorrow!

We have had some wonderfully cold and frosty days this week with beautiful sunshine and blue skies and the weather is forecast to continue cold well into next week so please don't forget to pop along on Wednesday to Tebworth Memorial Hall for the Pop Up Tea room with a wonderful selection of cakes and savouries, and soup, from 11.00 am to 1.00 pm or to Wilkinson Hall, Toddington Wednesday Winter Warmer gathering which is from 10.30 am to 2.30 pm, with soup and baked potatoes for lunch. Each gathering will offer you good company and a warm welcome.
